MUSIC NOTES: Northwood's own Liana Stephen is heading to Carnegie Hall with East Lake High School to perform the Mozart Requiem. This is a huge accomplishment and requires a lot of funding. My son Cody played there also with Tarpon Springs Music Conservatory and I know how expensive it is and how performing in that hall will forever be a part of you. In that vein, I would like to announce two musical opportunities!

1) Liana is participating in a female trio (all from ELHS) on Feb. 12th at Heritage United Methodist Church. Their choir director is Rob Knabel, also choir director at HUM, thus the connection. The concert is after a spaghetti dinner at 6:30 and will begin approximately at 7:00. It will consist of operatic arias, classical duets, and even Broadway and pop music. A free-will offering will be taken.

2) The entire East Lake High School Choir, led by Rob Knabel and accompanied by Tom Huffman and Betty Dethmers, will sing the Mozart Requiem in our sanctuary on Sun., Mar. 18, 3pm as a kick off to their concert at Carnegie Hall. Seating is limited and a large crowd is expected.
