

MUSIC NOTES:

Two anthems today are by contemporary women composers. Cindy Berry (b. 1949) wrote a moving setting of the ancient "Christ Hymn" from Philippians 2. These words of Paul may have been sung by the early Christians as a statement of faith. Jesus 'divested' himself of divine glory and voluntarily assumed the form of a human servant and 'became obedient unto death, even death on a cross.' That's why God raised him up and gave him the name above every other name: Lord.

Natalie Sleeth (1930-1992) wrote "Promised Land" for a United Methodist Women in the Clergy Conference in 1979. She never accepted commissions but agreed to attempt to write something for the group although she wrote, "their women's lib cause was not necessarily my number one priority." After several 'false starts' and almost abandoning the project, she came up with this piece which the women liked and actually used it as the 'keynote' of their Dallas Conference.

"Promised Land" Natalie Sleeth
Westminster Youth Choir

*Brother, sister, lend an ear, I'm headin' for the promised land!
Troubles soon will disappear, I'm headin' for the promised land!
When I reach it there will be love and happiness awaitin' for me, come along and you will see! I'm headin' for the promised land!*

*I'll be singin' freedom's song, I'm headin' for the promised land!
That's the place where I belong, I'm headin' for the promised land!
I'll get there one day I know; now I've started I'm a-rarin' to go where the milk and honey flow, I'm headin' for the promised land!*

*O, listen, don't you hear that trumpet, sounding forth the call!
O, children, won't you rise and follow, one and all?*

*Better days are now in view, I'm headin' for the promised land!
All my dreams are comin' true, I'm headin' for the promised land!
Want to leave the past behind, face the future with a hopeful mind, peace and joy I'll surely find, I'm headin' for the promised. Land!*

God who makes all things new, have mercy upon us as we make our confession. The afflicted await good news. The poor await our kindness. The brokenhearted need their wounds healed. The captives still yearn for freedom, and those who mourn remain to be comforted. Forgive us who fail to follow Christ's call to faithful ministry; restore us and make us worthy to serve. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

ANTHEM “At the Name of Jesus” Cindy Berry

*Jesus, though he was God, did not cling to his rights as God,
But laid aside his mighty power and glory.
Taking the form of a servant, and becoming like men.
He humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on the cross.*

*At the name of Jesus ev'ry knee shall bow in heaven and in earth.
That ev'ry knee shall bow and ev'ry tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord!*

--Philippians 2:6-11

WE GO OUT TO SERVE

HYMN “Sovereign God of All Creation” HYFRYDOL

Sovereign God of all creation, reigning o'er all time and space,
With us in our celebration of each milestone, age, and place;
Challenge us to faithful living in our day, so fraught with greed.
As You give, may we be giving as we see our neighbor's need.

Loving Christ, our servant Master, Savior of all humankind,
Living with us, friend and pastor, serving God with heart and mind:
Show us where the need is stronger; there our energies employ.
Grant us skill and patience longer to fulfill our tasks with joy.

Holy Spirit, Hope of morrow Advocate for all the lost,
Comfort in all pain and sorrow, Faithful One who counts not cost;
May Your presence so inspire us that we feel what others feel.
May Your flame of love so fire us that through us is love made real.
